Professional Development Plan

Name: Kristin Lewis

Date: 01/30/2026

Position: ASM

Work Location: 9024 Fairfield

My ultimate goal: Advance to General Manager position within Ohio Valley Goodwill Industries by developing the leadership, technical, and interpersonal skills required for effective store operations management.

Goal 1	Goal 2	Goal 3
Develop advanced proficiency in retail analytics by consistently analyzing daily sales reports, identifying performance trends, and implementing data-driven solutions to improve store metrics within six months.	Build confidence and competency in conducting timely, effective performance conversations with team members by completing coaching certification and leading at least two documented coaching sessions monthly.	Demonstrate readiness for General Manager responsibilities by successfully leading store operations during manager absences and completing a comprehensive leadership development program within one year.

My Why Mastering retail analytics will enable Kristin to make informed decisions that directly impact store performance and profitability. This technical expertise is essential for General Manager responsibilities and will immediately enhance her effectiveness as an ASM by allowing her to proactively identify issues and opportunities before they affect the team or customers.	My Why Developing stronger coaching skills will empower Kristin to address performance issues proactively rather than reactively, creating a more productive work environment that supports team member growth. This capability is fundamental to successful leadership and directly impacts store culture, employee engagement, and ultimately customer service quality.	My Why Taking on expanded leadership responsibilities will provide Kristin with hands-on experience managing all aspects of store operations while building the confidence needed for promotion. This goal directly aligns with OVGI's commitment to developing talent from within and ensures she can effectively lead teams in achieving the organization's mission of transforming lives through the power of work.
