Professional Development Plan

Name: William Harper, B.S.

Date: 02/27/2026

Position: General Manager-In Training

Work Location: 9011 Tri-County

My ultimate goal: To successfully transition into a General Manager role by consistently achieving and exceeding sales, production, and KPI targets while maintaining mission alignment and operational integrity.

Goal 1	Goal 2	Goal 3
Achieve and maintain store sales performance at or above 102% of budget and improve three identified KPI metrics by 15% within six months through enhanced operational analysis and corrective action implementation.	Build and lead a high-performing team by reducing turnover by 20% and achieving 90% compliance on daily accountability measures through improved structure, communication, and employee development initiatives.	Develop enhanced conflict resolution and communication skills by completing formal leadership training and demonstrating measurable improvement in team feedback scores regarding management effectiveness within three months.

My Why Mastering KPI analysis and sales optimization directly impacts the store's ability to generate revenue that funds Goodwill's mission programs. Strong technical competency in these areas demonstrates readiness for General Manager responsibilities and ensures William can effectively steward resources to maximize community impact while meeting organizational expectations.	My Why Strong leadership creates an environment where team members thrive, reducing costly turnover while improving service quality for customers and donation partners. Effective team leadership directly supports Goodwill's mission by ensuring consistent operations that maximize the transformation of donated goods into job opportunities and community programs.	My Why Strong interpersonal skills are essential for maintaining team morale and resolving workplace challenges before they impact operations. Improved communication and conflict resolution abilities will enable William to create a positive work environment that supports both individual growth and collective success in serving the mission.
